

team classics

1/2 day to full day

Team building is about seeing ourselves as part of a larger whole, about tapping into the power and possibility that more than one can create. When you have the time to invest in this type of day, the results are undeniable. Fun, dynamic and full of impact!

Adventure Challenge™

It's All in a Day's Play

Strap on your most comfortable gear, a playful spirit and a smile. Adventure Challenge is a dynamic series of group challenge initiatives and interactive games. Team members are challenged to call upon their leadership, problem solving and communication skills. Adventure Challenge can be conducted indoors or out.

C-Squared™

Corporations Building Communities

DillonMarcus, along with many of our clients, is committed to helping communities grow stronger. C-Squared is an awesome opportunity to leverage the best in team building with the best in community service. If you have done this before, you understand the uniting power of this type of experience. If you have not, you will be blown away. We have many options from which to choose: Wheels™ (building bicycles), to Ground™ (building play grounds) to School™ (going into schools to play, teach and learn together). If your heart is beating with the desire to help others thrive while building up your team, then let us help you with C-Squared.

Castle™

Superb Sand Sculpting

It's built upon a fantasy, yet the benefits are real. Teams dream, plan and build castles beyond their wildest imagination. Sand sculpting develops the visioning, planning and execution skills teams need to achieve real business objectives. Watch team members take on new roles, form stronger relationships and grow together.

Festival™

Fulfilling Everyone's Fantasy

Ceramics, kite flying, line dancing, cake decorating and juggling – imagine a whole field full of activities you've always dreamed of trying but never have. Select from an unending menu of options. Perfect for company picnics, Festival is a celebration of learning, risk-taking and self-expression.

Found™

Junk Sculpting & the Art of Business

Found is a forum for discovering more about ourselves, about each other and about what we can create when we collaborate. The activity is junk sculpting, yet the impact is priceless. Teams create a vision and then build a sculpture that represents something vital to them – an ideal team member or a new product. The excitement and energy builds as they compete for the coveted junk sculpting cup.

Fraudeville™

A No-Talent, Talent Show

Experience the thrill and challenge of creating your very own variety show. After spending time in our Fraudeville workshops, attendees work together to create their very own "acts." Magic, singing, dancing, and comedy are all part of the show. Your co-workers will never stop talking about this experience. Grab your cane, get your hat and have a ball taking center stage!

Launch™

Boat Building At Its Best

All hands on deck! Imagine ship mates challenged with the task of designing and building a boat that must hold and float fellow crew members! Using basic boat building materials, crews must decide on a design that maximizes both speed and safety. A microcosm for learning, Launch emphasizes service to the customer, quality craftsmanship and interpersonal communication.

Lights, Camera, Action!™

A Film Making Festival

Get ready to experience the thrill and challenge of creating your very own movie. After spending time in our Actors Studio Workshops, crews set out to create their very own feature film. Attendees form production crews to make movies showcasing your company and your products in a way that is relevant to your business goals. The movies both teach and team build! Hit the lights, grab your camera and have a great time getting into the action!

More Than Magic™

It's No Illusion

It's a fantasy come true as participants learn how to perform real magic. It's a once in a lifetime experience for teams to impress themselves as they make the impossible seem possible. After watching and learning from a master magician, teams put on a 'show' that's full of fun, magic and laughs. Anyone can perform a trick; now we learn how to make magic. Add that spark of magic to your work, teams and organizations. It's no illusion – everyone has a great time!

Mosaic Madness™

Framing Your Future

Mosaic Madness is an artistic adventure where the art studio is transformed into a workshop for creating the future together. After participating in a dynamic visioning process, groups roll up their sleeves and literally bring their vision to life in the form of a tile mosaic. The final piece serves as a visual representation of the groups' mission and inspires conversation long after the session is over. So what are you waiting for? Let the hammering and grouting begin!

Pillars™

In Search of Your Values

You are a nation in search of the pillars to your success. As representatives of your tribe, you've been summoned to discover the values critical to achieving and sustaining your future – both literally and figuratively. Supplied with a map, your challenge is to acquire the pillars of your organization hidden in the woods. Heed the drums and come find the pillars to your success.

Ready, Set, Cook!™

A Recipe for Success

Say yes to an adventure in cooking. The kitchen transforms into a laboratory for working together, executing plans and delivering first class service. Participants loosen up as they don their aprons and get into the fantasy of becoming four-star chefs. Each team creates a different part of the meal – it's the perfect recipe for success. Watch the fun heat up as everyone gets cooking!

Rocket Science™

Propel Your Team Forward

The excitement starts when a modern day challenge is made by NASA to re-design the MARS landing module. Teams must give their landing module a name, share its design strengths and ultimately prove they have the "right stuff" to achieve this mission. Teams have a blast honing their problem solving and collaboration skills.

Ropes, Rocks, Dogs and Fire™

Team Building in Full Gear

As Shakespeare is to English, ropes courses are to experiential learning. Classic team building at its best, we offer it all from low ropes to high ropes, from rock climbing to dog sledding, from orienteering to fire walking. Outdoor adventure teaches us things about ourselves that can't be learned in a book. It asks us to expand our boundaries beyond what we thought possible and provides memories that last a lifetime.

Upbeat™

Creating the Beat of Your Team

Imagine the awesome sound of drums, a whole bunch of drums, pounding out a beat—many beats—all coming together to create an amazing sound and a powerful feeling. Upbeat is a fun way to unleash the beat within your organization. Are you humming, thriving, and bopping to the beat of an amazing rhythm? If not, get Upbeat today.

You Gussed It™

Game Show

Imagine the wackiness of the Gong Show coupled with the intelligence of Jeopardy and you'll come close to understanding the hilarious interactive nature of the You Gussed It game show. Customizable video and audio questions make this game show a hilarious multimedia experience. Perfect for product launches, milestone celebrations or after-dinner festivities.

Zagg!™

A Scavenger Hunt on Steroids

Become the contestants on your very own reality.T.V. show! Embark on a mind-bending experience involving clues, critical thinking and collective intelligence. Get out of the office and get a clue as you participate in this "scavenger hunt on steroids." Challenged intellectually and stimulated physically, teams return from Zagg with a renewed sense of enthusiasm. It's a race where everybody wins!

Looking to promote the Spirit of Brotherly Love? Zagg™ A Scavenger Hunt on Steroids Meets 18th Century Philadelphia

Get an upfront and intimate view of the sites, characters and historical facts that make Philadelphia the center of America's independence. Fifteen clues delivered in a variety of formats – multimedia, written and manned; this is an incredible hands-on experience that will make both history and your hunt participants come alive!

Zagg! challenge:

Enter through her wrought-iron gates,
For that is where your clue challenge awaits.
Points go to the teams,
Who can sew a star much like a seam!

Don't just learn about history – relive it!
